

EXCERPT

Kyle swung the door open. "Inside."

"No kiss this time?" Harmony asked, testing him. Her chin was high.

"That's right." He spoke quietly enough that it didn't carry into the lobby when he said, "You want to know something I'm afraid of?"

"What've you got, superhero?"

"That whatever's happened between us tonight wiped out everything that came before it. Is that what you want?" he asked.

"Are you kidding me?" For the first time, he saw the nerves behind her brave front. Her chin quavered even as she jabbed him with her finger. "Why do you think I didn't say anything before? You think I want to lose my best friend?"

He didn't reply.

She lifted her shoulders in a helpless shrug. "But I guess...at the end of the day...I'm not half as noble as you are."

Reviews

"Amber Leigh Williams is the master of wounded but not broken heroes. Kyle was the perfect mix of red hot alpha male and charming prince at heart."

Author Crystal-Rain Love

"This book here will have you turning the pages wanting to know what's coming next. The sweetness of it all will having you hanging on. Enjoyed this book more than I realized!"
